

Samuel Phillips

210 North 2nd Avenue,
Tucson, AZ 85705
Telephone No: 520-225-3987
Email ID: Phillips.sam@gmail.com

Objective

To obtain a respectable entry-level position in the commercial management field and apply theoretical and practical horticultural knowledge to meet as well as exceed the customer expectations.

Education

University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona.
B.S. in Agriculture Technology Management, dual emphasis in Ornamental Horticulture and Landscape and Turf Management.
Cumulative GPA 4.5 Expected May 2002.

Related Coursework:

- Landscape Management
- Plant Nutrition
- Plant Physiology
- Plant Pathology
- Business Accounting

Activities

- Alpha Tau Alpha (Agriculture Education and Technology Honorary Organization)
- Phi Eta Sigma (Collegiate National Honor Society)
- Jacobs-Cline Society (Agriculture Education and Technology Service Organization)
- Honors College
- College of Life Sciences Student Advisory Council
- Volunteer for St. Helena's Food Bank

Experience

8/99 - Present: Specialist, Environmental Care Inc., Phoenix, Arizona

Responsible for extensive crew supervision. Served as a client-crew liaison and an on-site horticulturist.

5/99 - 7/99: Intern, Environmental Care Inc., Phoenix Arizona

Responsible for work in interior scape, landscape maintenance, irrigation maintenance and landscape construction areas.

1/95 - 5/97: Assistant Research Technician, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Agriculture Research Service, National Small Grains Collection Unit, Maricopa, Arizona

Responsible for entering research data on small and large grains fields.

References Available upon request